DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The use of the trademark HYDRA-TRAC has been noted in this application. It should be CAPITALIZED wherever it appears and be accompanied by the generic terminology.

Although the use of trademarks is permissible in patent applications, the proprietary nature of the marks should be respected and every effort made to prevent their use in any manner which might adversely affect their validity as trademarks.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1, 2, 4-6, 12-15, 19 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Caldwell (US 2,334,312).

Regarding claims 1, 12: Caldwell discloses a restraining arrangement that would limit the separation between a feed table 17 and a positioner block 77 of a mobile track drill. The arrangement includes the following components:

- A first or male constraint device 88, 89 (Figure 5) secured to the positioner block.
- A second or female constraint device 95, 96 (Figure 4) secured to the feed table and configured to receive and retain the first constraint device so that it is rotatable relative to the second device.

Regarding claims 2, 12: The first device includes a pair of extending ears and the second device includes a circular recessed groove sized to receive the ears.

Regarding claim 4: The second device includes a pair of female constraint members mounted to the feed table where each female constraint member defines a portion of the recessed groove.

Regarding claims 5, 13, 15: The pair of female constraint members is spaced from each other to define a pair of insertion gaps where the grooves is discontinuous along the gaps.

Regarding claims 6, 14, 20: The length of the gaps is at least as long as the ears such that the ears pass through the gaps.

Regarding claim 19: Caldwell discloses a method for limiting the separation between the feed table and the positioner block using the above arrangement.

Allowable Subject Matter

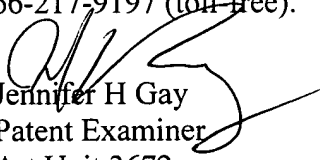

4. Claims 3, 7-11, 16-18, and 21-23 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
